

Ilene Meckley
Letter to Direct Selling Leader
Rev. 11.07.08

There's an old adage that's as true today as ever before:

“Help others achieve the success of their dreams, and you'll achieve the success of which dreams are made.”

Ilene Meckley, the Success Coach, is delivering her inspiring message of heartfelt hope and achievement to packed audiences throughout North America. During a stellar career in direct selling, Ilene built a team of thousands, and earned top honors in her company, including Hall of Fame, Woman of the Year, and President's Club 14 times. Now this celebrated trainer, motivational speaker, and radio personality is available to work with the members of your sales organization to help them achieve the success of their dreams.

Imagine if the Success Coach conducted a two hour seminar, an all-day seminar or a two-day Achievement Weekend for your sales organization. Would such an event:

Energize your sale team?

Give your team members the tools they need to successfully recruit?

Help them see the BIG PICTURE of a career in direct sales?

Yes, you know it would, because Ilene Meckley knows, first-hand, what it takes to achieve success in direct sales. You may already be familiar with her CDs and books, including Working from the Heart and Highway of Success: Proceed with Passion, inspired by her near-death automobiles accident and fight to recover. Now you and your sales organization can put together a winning program featuring one of the best in the business, Ilene Meckley.

Believing in the power of training, Ilene has agreed to keep her fees affordable so she can reach more direct sellers like herself. Your team deserves excellence. Give them the Success Coach, Ilene Meckley.
